

PRESS RELEASE

HauckSchuchardt Appoints Real Estate Attorney Dr. Sven Wortberg as Partner

Frankfurt, June 25, 2025 – HauckSchuchardt, a boutique law firm specializing in real estate and tax law, continues to strengthen its real estate capabilities. Effective July 1, 2025, Dr. Sven Wortberg will join the firm as a partner in its Frankfurt office. A recognized authority in real estate and investment law, Dr. Wortberg brings extensive experience from leading international law firms.

He joins HauckSchuchardt from global law firm Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer, where he has served as a partner since 2018 and, since 2023, led the German Real Estate practice group. Prior to that, he was a partner at King & Spalding in Frankfurt. His broad expertise spans real estate transactions, including financing and structuring, as well as asset management—making him a valuable addition to the firm’s growing team.

Dr. Wortberg, 52, earned his law degree and doctorate in insolvency law from Georg-August University in Göttingen. He began his legal career in 2002 at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer in the corporate law department and is a frequent speaker on current topics in real estate law.

“I am excited to join HauckSchuchardt’s real estate team,” said Dr. Sven Wortberg. “The firm’s interdisciplinary approach, deep industry insight, and entrepreneurial mindset make it a strong partner for real estate investors—particularly for mid-sized companies. I look forward to contributing my large law firm experience and collaborating with the team to develop bespoke solutions for our clients.”

Commenting on the appointment, Dr. Hans-Christian Hauck, founding partner of HauckSchuchardt, said: “Our firm stands for tailored strategies in complex real estate transactions. With Dr. Sven Wortberg, we welcome a pragmatic, solution-oriented advisor who is known for his responsiveness and the clarity of his counsel. His repeated recognition in top legal directories such as JUVE, Chambers, and Legal 500 speaks for itself. We are truly pleased to welcome him on board.”
